Nancy Rebold - Distinguished Founder Award

Nancy Rebold is a founder of CAC, and has served on the CAC Board of Directors, including the Executive Committee, since 2010. Nancy has been a volunteer advocate for over 10 years passionately advocating for three girls, working with one young woman for over seven years. Nancy is a Nationally Certified Counselor with a Masters in Education and Human Development with extensive experience in the field of behavioral health and addiction, counseling patients and victims of violence and abuse or neglect. Nancy sits on the Newcomb-Tulane College Dean's Advisory Counsel and is a past Board Member of the Make a Wish Foundation of Connecticut. Nancy and her husband Matt live in Weston and are the proud parents of Liza and Tess.

Anne and Jon Liebergall - Outstanding Service Award

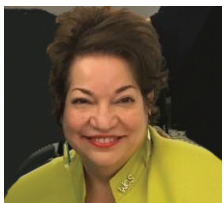

Anne Liebergall has been a CAC volunteer advocate for six years. Anne is a Registered Nurse and has tirelessly advocated for two boys and two girls from infant to young adult. Anne is a long standing member and Board Member of Junior League, former Board Member of United Jewish Federation of Stamford and currently a volunteer nurse at the Barrier Islands Free Medical Clinic. Jon Liebergall became interested in CAC through Anne's commitment and has been on the CAC Board of Directors, serving on the Finance and Fundraising Committees, since 2014. Jon is a Founding Partner of Vu Partners, a strategy-consulting firm, and the former President of AIG Markets where he served on several AIG affiliated Boards. Anne and Jon raised their daughters Perri and Sophie in New Canaan, and currently reside in South Carolina.

Jody Truwit - Outstanding Volunteer Award

Jody Truwit has been a CAC volunteer advocate for five years. Jody is a Licensed Master Social Worker and has tirelessly advocated for three teenage girls in this role. Jody currently works as a TLP Counselor at Silver Hill Hospital and was a Clinical Therapist MSW candidate at the Child Guidance Center and at Family and Children's Agency. Previously, Jody worked extensively in the non-profit world, with a focus on education and advocating for the needs of underserved children and their families at The Waterside School, Save the Children, A Different September Foundation, and the Special Olympics World Games Organizing Committee. Jody has served on the Board and Honorary Board of Connecticut Special Olympics, the Board of The Darien YMCA, and currently is on the Board of Trustees for St. Luke's School. Jody and her husband Mitch live in Darien and are the proud parents of Cooper, Alexandra, Jack, and Teddy.

Patricia Russo - Master of Ceremonies

Patricia Russo is a nationally respected speaker and leader focused on improving the quality of life for women in Connecticut and the United States. Patricia currently serves as Executive Director of the Women's Campaign School at Yale University. For over 23 years Patricia served on Connecticut's Permanent Commission on the Status of Women, including eight years as its Chair. Patricia founded the Connecticut Women's Agenda, the Women's Business Development Council of Connecticut and the Connecticut NARAL Foundation. Patricia is the recipient of numerous awards, is frequently interviewed and quoted, and is a popular speaker at the Clinton Foundation.
